

DR. BOB WEATHERS

Orange County, California • (310) 383-7532

RECOVERY COACHING/COUNSELING EXPERIENCE

Recovery Coach Private Practice Offices in Irvine and Encino, Ca. 2010 to present

Works both face-to-face and online with outpatient clients presenting with primary presenting problem of substance abuse and addiction. Also speaks publicly to lay and professional organizations, trains addiction treatment professionals, consults with civic groups through seminars and workshops.

Recovery Coach Beginnings Treatment Center, Santa Ana, Ca. 2016 to present

Works directly with inpatient clients presenting with primary presenting problem of substance abuse and addiction. Leads psychoeducational groups on addiction recovery for all clients. Also provides regular clinical staff in-service training seminars.

Clinical Director Wellminded Center, Irvine, Ca. 2014

Supervising multidisciplinary, recovery-focused staff working directly with outpatient clients presenting with primary presenting problem of substance abuse and addiction. Also providing regular clinical staff in-service training seminars.

Licensed Clinical Psychologist Private Practice Offices in Los Angeles Area 1987-2010

Providing individual and group modalities of adolescent, adult, marital, and family therapy. Also performing psychological assessment, speaking publicly to lay and professional organizations, training and supervising mental health providers, consulting with schools, universities, and civic groups through seminars and workshops.

Staff Psychologist Stone Eagle Retreat Center, Malibu, Ca. 2007-2008

Providing individual and group modalities of adolescent, adult, marital, and family therapy for inpatient clients presenting with primary presenting problem of substance abuse and addiction. Also performing psychological assessment, training and supervising mental health interns, coordinating multidisciplinary staff in-service training.

Founding Clinical Director Passages Addiction Treatment Center, Malibu, Ca. 2002-2004

In charge of residential treatment, providing individual and group modalities of adolescent, adult, marital, and family therapy for inpatient clients presenting with primary presenting problem of substance abuse and addiction. Also performing psychological assessment, training and supervising mental health interns, coordinating multidisciplinary staff in-service training.

ACADEMIC/TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University Administrator California Southern University, Costa Mesa, Ca. 2008 to present

Consulting for curriculum, research, & program development within online university. Chairing institutional review board (IRB) and other university-wide policy-making committees. Advising doctoral projects. Providing regular staff in-service training seminars. Directing clinical training in master's and doctoral degree programs. Instructing online courses, including grading students' level of performance. Supervising student clinical trainees online.

Founding Faculty Member Integral Recovery Institute, Teasdale, Utah 2014 to present

For Integral Recovery Certificate Program, developing courses, instructing in online courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty.

Adjunct Instructor Argosy University, Los Angeles and Orange, Ca. 2011-2014

In master's degree programs in counseling psychology and forensic psychology, developing courses, instructing in class-room and online courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty. Awarded Argosy University Certificate of Appreciation "for outstanding performance and lasting contribution to student education and growth."

Member of Board of Governors Perelandra College, La Mesa, CA 2010-2016

Developing marketing strategies for new curriculum and online academic programs, participating directly in university policy-making.

Adjunct Instructor California State University, San Bernardino, Ca. 2008

In master's degree programs in counseling psychology, developing courses, instructing in class-room courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty.

Visiting Professor Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, Ca. 2002

In doctoral degree program in clinical psychology, developing courses, instructing in class-room courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty.

Visiting Professor Pacifica Graduate Institute, Santa Barbara, Ca. 1992-1993, 1998-1999

In master's degree program in counseling psychology, developing courses, instructing in class-room courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty. Supervising master's theses. Participating actively in university policy-making committees. Directing the master's-level Marriage, Family, & Child Counseling training program.

Full Professor

Pepperdine University Graduate School of Education and Psychology, Malibu and Culver City, Ca.

1986-2001

In master's degree and doctoral degree programs in clinical psychology, developing courses, instructing in class-room courses, supervising skills-building exercises, grading students' level of performance, consulting with university students and faculty. Supervising doctoral dissertations. Chairing university policy-making committees. Directing the master's-level Marriage, Family, & Child Counseling training program. Awarded Charles and Harriet Luckman Distinguished Teaching Fellowship (highest university honor given to teaching faculty).

EDUCATION

Fuller School of Psychology	Ph.D., Clinical Psychology	1985
Fuller Theological Seminary	M.A., Religious Studies	1983
Fresno Pacific University	B.A., Psychology & Religious Studies	1979